

2010 SECRETARY OF STATE ANNUAL REGULATORY AGENDA

November 30, 2009

The moratorium on rulemaking is extended through June 2010 (Laws 2009, 3rd Special Session, Ch. 7, § 28). The office does not anticipate any rulemaking activity during this timeframe.

Pursuant to A.R.S. § 41-1021.02, the Office of the Secretary of State provides the following agenda for rulemaking activity for 2010.

§ 41-1021.02. State agencies; annual regulatory agenda

A. On or before December 1 of each year, each agency, except for a self-supporting regulatory board as defined in section 41-1092, shall prepare and make available to the public the regulatory agenda that the agency expects to follow during the next calendar year.

B. The regulatory agenda shall include all of the following:

1. A notice of docket openings.
2. A notice of any proposed rule making, including potential sources of federal funding for each proposed rule making.
3. A review of existing rules.
4. A notice of final rulemaking.

C. The regulatory agenda shall also provide for the following information:

1. Any rule making terminated during the current calendar year.
2. Any privatization option and nontraditional regulatory approach being considered by the agency.

D. This section does not prohibit an agency from undertaking any rule making action even if that action has not been included in the agency's annual regulatory agenda.

Historical Note: Added by Laws 2002, Ch. 334, § 3, effective August 22, 2002.

2010 RULEMAKING AGENDA

1. Docket Openings for 2010:

None anticipated.

2. Proposed Rulemaking for 2010:

None anticipated.

3. Review of Existing Rules:

None anticipated, unless necessitated by 2010 legislative changes to the Administrative Procedures Act or to office duties established in Arizona Revised Statutes.

4. Final Rulemaking and Termination of Rulemaking:

None anticipated.

Please review the Administrative Register Table of Contents or the Rulemaking Filing Log for possible additions or changes to this agenda.